

Section 3: British Colony, 1664-1783

Introduction:

Slavery and the Slave Trade in British New York, 1664-1783

Lesson Plans

History-Mystery- Slavery on Long Island

Activity Sheets

Narratives

Captain William Kidd

Narrative of the Life and Adventures of Venture Smith

Additional Documents Available on the Internet

1664 -1686. Slavery in British America

1671-1827. Statistical Profile of Slavery on Long Island

1675-1775. British Profits on the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade

1679-1680. Will of Nathaniel Sylvester

1680-1759. Dispositions of Slaves on the East End of Long Island

1687-1787. Slave Life at Lloyd Manor

1687. Petition of the Royal African Company to the Court of Admiralty

1688-1764. Enslaved africans Disembarking from the Port of New York

1698-1700. Earl of Bellomont and Frederick Phillipps

1698-1712. New York Census

1698-1771. New York Census By County

1698-1800. Population of Enslaved Africans in Kings County

1698-1820. African Americans As A Percent Of Population Of Long Island

1698. New York Enslaved African Population

1700-1722. Enslaved Africans Imported Into Port Of New York

1700-1722. Enslaved Africans Imported Into Port Of New York

1701-1764. Enslaved Africans Imported Into the Port of New York

1702-1825. Reported Escapes By Enslaved Africans On Long Island

1702. An Act for Regulating Slaves

1703-1773. White and African American Population of New York and East Jersey

1706-1708. Fear of Slave Unrest

1706-1732. New York Custom House Entries

1711. Governor Hunter Orders Religious Instruction for Enslaved Africans

1711. The Old Slave or Meal Market

1712-1719. The New York Slave Revolt

1712/1713. Documentary Evidence of the New York City African American Burial Ground

1713-1744. Miscellaneous Documents about Slavery from British America

1713. Assiento and the Treaty of Utrecht

1715-1763. Number of Enslaved Africans Per Vessel Entering the Port of New York by Port of Embarkation and Month.

1720-1791. Resistance to Slavery on Long Island

1723. New York Census

1726-1772 . Trade in Tons between the Port of New York and the Caribbean (including Bermuda and the Bahamas)

1731. New York Census

1732-1734. Runaway Slave Advertisements

1734-1750. Slave Sales and Inventories, Westchester, New York 1737. New York Census 1738-1822. Runaway Slave Advertisements from New York 1741. Execution - Engraving of slave being burned at the stake 1741. The New York City Slave Conspiracy and Trial 1741. The Testimony of Mary Burton 1741. Slave Conspiracy Trial (Africans taken into custody) 1741. Conspiracy Trial (White people taken into custody) 1742. Legal Responses to the Slave Rebellion Scare 1746. New York Census 1746. New York City Municipal Laws 1749-1754. Arrival of Slave Shipments 1749. New York Census 1751. Enslaved Africans Brought to New York Colony 1751- 1805. News Items Relating to Slave Trade 1755. Map Showing African Burial Ground 1756. New York Census 1761 - 1762. (D) Import Duty on Slaves 1761-1764. Notice of New Jersey Sales 1771. New York Census 1774-1879. DORCAS (obituary) 1775. Many Nassau Families Owned Slaves Late in 18th Century by Walter S. Funnell ( Nassau Democrat Review-Star , February 17, 1937) 1775-1783. Fugitive Blacks by County, New York 1775-1783. Free People of Color in "Book of Negro" 1775. Price of Slaves 1779. Escapes to the British Lines 1783. Enslaved and Independent African Evacuees from Long Island with British Forces. 1783. African Long Islanders Evacuated with British Forces 1783. General George Washington Discusses the Status of Escaped Slaves
---	--