

1715-1763. Number of Enslaved Africans Per Vessel Entering the Port of New York by Port of Embarkation and Month.

Spain's awarding of the assiento (a monopoly in the trade in slaves between Africa and Spain's New World colonies) to England in 1713, stimulated the shipment of enslaved Africans to the port of New York. Approximately 7,500 Africans arrived between 1717 and 1757. Source: Hodges, G. (1999). Root & Branch, African Americans in New York & East Jersey, 1613-1863.
